Beneficiaries cannot be named as Joint Owners on the same account

Section C: Joint Owner Information (Only complete if adding a Joint Owner).
 The Joint Account Owner being added must complete Section C, D and E.

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, federal law requires all U.S. financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who is an owner of an account. What this means for you: When you are added as an account owner, we will ask for your name, a street address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your identifying documents.

We only open accounts for legal U.S. residents for applicants 18 or over. By signing and submitting this application, you are acknowledging that you are a U.S. citizen or resident alien of the U.S.

Section D: Certification of Taxpayer Identification Number

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person; and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.*

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.

*This certification is Not Applicable.

Please refer to IRS Form W-9 instructions for additional information.

The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
